RULES

Junior Shows: These are permitted in connection with agricultural fairs only if they are open to boys and girls who are 8 years of age by January 1 of the fair in which they will show or will not be 20 years of age before December 31 in the year of which they will show, who are residents of Marion County or 4-H club members of Marion County. Group placings are not permitted (Jones and Smith). Rules and regulations in Junior Shows should in most cases be those of the Open Show. Animals shown in Junior Shows must be the property of the boys or girls showing. No copy of applied for or photocopy will be accepted in lieu of the original registration papers. (This does not apply to calves under 6 months of age.) Registration papers will be checked as the animal enters the show ring. If these animals are shown in the Open Class, they must be shown in the same name, THUS, the father is not permitted to show an animal in the Open Class and the daughter or son the same animal in the Junior Show. All animals must be exhibited in the judging ring by owner. In case an exhibitor shows two entries in any class or becomes ill, while at the Fair, or is unable to show his or her animal for any reason, they may obtain the aid of another junior exhibitor in showing the animal providing permission is received from the superintendent of the Junior Livestock Department. Failure to observe this rule may be grounds for disqualification. We will make every effort to cooperate with exhibitors showing two kinds of animals (beef and sheep or swine) but we will not hold up or disrupt any of the shows.

Junior Showmanship - 8-13 years of age as of January 1, 2021.

Senior Showmanship - 14-19 years of age as of January 1, 2021.

Junior Champion Female is selected from First Place animals in the non-production classes. Grand Champion Female is selected from the Junior Champion Females plus the production class (cow class/ sow class). ONLY EXHIBITORS ARE PERMITTED IN THE SHOW RING. No help from parents or other adults. In order to participate in showmanship contest, the exhibitor must have entered and exhibited one animal.
